IN THE SUPREME COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA

[illegible]

Trial Court No. 3AN-14-02936PR

Appellee Seacliff Condominium Association, by and through counsel, hereby moves to reschedule oral argument to September 2015. The reason for this motion is that counsel for Seacliff has a long-scheduled commitment to direct an event at the Alaska State Fair on Thursday, August 27, 2015 – the day before oral argument.

This motion is unopposed. Attached hereto are emails between counsel for Appellant, Appellee, and amicus so indicating.

Dated this 12th day of June, 2015.

The Law Project for Psychiatric Rights is a public interest law firm devoted to the defense of people facing the horrors of forced psychiatric drugging and electroshock. We are further dedicated to exposing the truth about these drugs and the courts being misled into ordering people to be drugged and subjected to other brain and body damaging interventions against their will. Currently, due to massive growth in psychiatric drugging of children and youth and the current targeting of them for even more psychiatric drugging, PsychRights has made attacking this problem a priority. Children are virtually always forced to take these drugs because it is the adults in their lives who are making the decision. This is an unfolding national tragedy of immense proportions. Extensive information about all of this is available on our web site, <http://psychrights.org/>. Please donate generously. Our work is fueled with your IRS 501(c) tax deductible donations. Thank you for your ongoing help and support.

Jim:

To confirm our conversation of moments ago, you do not oppose a motion to reschedule oral argument to September. My reason for requesting the schedule change is my co-directing an event at the Alaska State Fair on August 27, 2015.

Please let me know if that is not correct.

Rob

Laura:

As we discussed, please confirm you don't oppose a motion to continue until September oral argument in the referenced appeal. I am directing an event at the Alaska State Fair on August 27 and will be cleaning up from that even on the 28th (the date currently scheduled).

Thanks,

Rob
